Headline:
Cloud and rain clearing to leave dry, bright afternoon.

Today:
Cloudy start with outbreaks of rain but becoming drier from the south this morning to leave a dry afternoon with bright or sunny spells, the best of these in the south. Becoming warm despite the occasionally strong southwesterly breeze. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
A few clear spells but rather a lot of cloud at times with a little drizzle, mainly across the hills. Occasionally fresh southwesterly winds. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy start with a little drizzle over hills, but soon becoming brighter with sunny spells developing. Becoming cloudier from the north later with evening rain. Occasionally fresh southwesterly breeze. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Outbreaks of rain on Wednesday morning but becoming drier and brighter from north in afternoon. Thursday and Friday, cooler but largely dry with sunny spells with northerly or northeasterly winds.
